

Bill Isaacs, of Kingston and Florida, died Monday, Sept. 16, 2019.

Born in Wilkes-Barre, he was the son of the late Jacob and Marion Schiowitz Isaacs. Bill was a graduate of Wyoming Seminary and earned his bachelor's degree from Wilkes College. A small business owner, Bill was the owner and operator of several businesses throughout his career. A lifetime member of Temple Israel, Bill was a 30-year Kiwanian and served on the Luzerne County Zoning Board for many years. A world class bridge competitor, Bill loved playing tennis, skiing, gardening and spending time with his family.

He is survived by his loving wife, Emily Emmert; daughter Susan Shapiro, of Penn Valley; sons Charles Isaacs and his wife, Gabrielle, of Sherman Oaks, Calif., and Robert Isaacs and his wife, Jenna; grandchildren Ben, Ron, Kelsey, Mollie, Magnolia and Theodore; and siblings David and his wife, Juanita, of Burnsville, N.C., and Norman and his wife, Cristina, of Palm Springs, Calif.